And be it enacted, That the governor and the council be authorised and requested to appoint and commission, for each of the said districts, one person of integrity, experience, and sound legal knowledge, who shall reside in the district for which he is appointed, (who shall be styled in the commission Chief Justice of the County Courts in such district,) and to appoint and commission, in each of the counties of this state, two persons of integrity, experience and knowledge, residents of the county for which they were appointed, (who shall be styled in the commission Associate Justices of the County Court of the county for which they shall be appointed;) and the said justices shall hold their commission during good behaviour, and may be removed for misbehaviour in the same manner as the chancellor and the judges may be removed, agreeably to the constitution of this state and not otherwise.

And be it enacted, That the county courts in each district shall be composed of the chief justice of the district in which each county shall be, and of two associate justices appointed for such counties respectively; and that the said county court, or the chief justice alone, or the two associate justices, shall have, possess and execute, the same power, jurisdiction and duties, now vested in, or required of, the county courts of this state, except in the cases hereafter excepted, and an appeal or writ of error shall lie to the general court, in the same manner, and under the same regulations, as is now or shall hereafter be allowed by law from the county courts to the general court; and any one of the said associate justices may hold and adjourn the said court, and empannel and charge the grand jury, and direct process to issue on any presentment or indictment found in the said court, or on any petition or complaint exhibited to the said court, and he may direct subpœnas to issue for witnesses to attend the said court, or attachments of contempt to issue against witnesses or jurors for non-attendance, and he may direct any witness to be sworn to the grand jury, and receive any presentment or indictment from the grand jury, and take recognizances for the appearance of witnesses, or any person presented or indicted; and he may commit any person presented or indicted for want of security, and he may direct judgments to be entered on confession, or non sum informatus, and on default or amerciaments [illegible] and may direct compulsory writs of [illegible] and may direct compulsory writs of [illegible] ments to be entered against persons brought in on executions, and may take special bail in any cause existing, or that may exist, in the court of which he is associate, and may also, in court sitting, accept the surrender by the principal of himself in discharge of his bail, and by the bail of the principal in discharge of himself, and take new bail, or commit for want of bail, and take recognizances for the appearance and security of any person or persons who have filed or may file petitions for freedom; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or change the powers of the court of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for Baltimore county, or to give to the county court of Baltimore criminal jurisdiction.

And be it enacted, That all acknowledgments of deeds hereafter made for the conveyance of land before any chief justice of a district, within his district, or any associate justice, within his county, shall be as good and valid in law as if the same was made before any judge of the general court, or before two justices of the peace, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it enacted, That the said courts shall have power, in the trial of actions at law, on motion made at the first court after the appearance court, supported by affidavit, that the same is not intended for delay, and due notice thereof being given, to require the parties to produce copies, certified by a justice of the peace, of all such parts of all books or writings in their possession or power as contain evidence pertinent to the issue, or to answer any bill for discovery only which may be filed by the second court after the appearance court, in cases and under circumstances where they might be compelled to produce the said original books or writing, or answer such bill of discovery, by the ordinary rules of proceeding in chancery; and if a plaintiff shall fail to comply with any such order to produce such books or writings, or answer such bill of discovery, it shall be lawful for the said courts, on motion, to give judgment against him, her or them, by default; provided, that any plaintiff or defendant may, in compliance with any rule for producing extracts of such books or papers, bring into court the original books or papers.

And be it enacted, That neither the chief justice of any district, or any of the associate justices, after their appointment and qualification, or any register of wills, shall act as an attorney or solicitor in any court of law or equity in this state during the time that they shall respectively act as such.

And be it enacted, That no action to be commenced in any county court appointed in virtue of this act shall continue longer than the end of the first court after the imparlance court, unless by consent of parties, at the discretion of the court, or such cause as the law may allow for the continuance of suits beyond the time limitted, shall appear to the satisfaction of the court.

And be it enacted, That in all cases where suits may hereafter be brought by any person or persons, nonresidents of this state, or who may remove out of the state after the bringing of such suit or suits, the defendant or defendants against whom such suit may be commenced, or his, her or their attorney, may lay a rule, at or before the trial court, on such plaintiff or plaintiffs, or his, her or their attorney, to give security for all costs and charges that the said defendant or defendants may be put to in case such plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or judgment be given against them, and in case of non-compliance with such rule, judgment of nonsuit shall be entered; provided nevertheless, that if any defendant or defendants shall lay a rule on any plaintiff or plaintiffs for security for costs at the trial court, that then and in such case the court granting said rule may, at the instance or motion of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, by his, her or their counsel, at their discretion, continue said cause until the next term.

And be it enacted, That when any action shall be brought, and it shall be entered upon the record that such suit is brought for the use of any other person or persons, and the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such action shall discontinue or strike off his, her or their said action, or be nonsuit thereon, or in case there shall be a judgment or verdict in favour of the defendant or defendants, the party or parties for whose use the action was instituted shall be answerable for the legal costs of suit, and may be proceeded against by attachment against the person or property of such party or parties for the recovery of the same, in the same manner as if he, she or they, had been entered by rule of court the security for such costs or suit.

And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person whatsoever to cause any inhabitant of this state to be arrested out of the county where he or she doth reside, by virtue of any capias ad respondendum, or capias ad satisfaciendum, for any debt, damage or cost, until the sheriff or coroner of the county where such defendant shall reside shall have returned a non est inventus on a capias ad respondendum, or capias ad satisfaciendum, issued at the request of the said person against the defendant.

And be it enacted, That if any person be arrested upon a capias ad respondendum, contrary to the intent of this act, the plaintiff in the said action shall suffer a nonsuit, and pay the defendant his or her reasonable costs and charges, to be adjudged him or her by the court from whence such process issued; and if any person be taken in execution contrary to the directions hereof, the court from whence such execution issued shall discharge him or her from his or her imprisonment; provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall extend to the benefit or advantage of any person who shall abscond from justice in the county where they live, but that such persons may be arrested in any county wherever they may be found.

And be it enacted, That after the commencement of this act no commission shall issue to any person, except to the said several chief justices and associate justices, to be a justice of any county court, but only to be a justice of the peace of such county; and upon the issuing of any commission, the justices appointed therein shall assemble, as soon as convenient, at the court-house of their county, and qualify as heretofore, but if any of the persons appointed are absent at the time of meeting, they may qualify at any time before any one of them who have before qualified.

And be it enacted, That every justice appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act shall, before he acts as such, take the oaths of fidelity and support to this state, as required by the constitution and laws thereof, provided he hath not before taken the same, and also the oath of justice as required by the act of February session, seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, chapter five.

And be it enacted, That if the chief justice of any county court, appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act, shall refuse to act, or after acceptance shall resign, die, remove out of his district, or be rendered incapable to act, or if any associate justice, appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act, shall refuse to act, or after acceptance shall resign, die, be rendered incapable to act, or remove out of the county, the governor for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, is hereby authorised and requested to appoint and commission another fit and proper person to fill such vacancy.

And be it enacted, That every chief justice of any county court, appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act, shall have, within the district for which he shall be appointed, all the powers and jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, except only as to the hearing and determining in the case of small debts out of the court; and every associate justice, appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act, shall have, within the county for which he shall be appointed, all the powers and jurisdiction of a justice of the peace out of court, except only as to hearing and determining in the case of small debts out of court, and sitting as a justice of the peace in the levy court.

And be it enacted, That the said chief justice, or either of the associate justices, may, out of court, direct the clerk to enter judgments by confession, or non sum informatus, and such judgment shall be as legal and valid as if entered in court during its sitting.

And be it enacted, That every chief justice appointed and commissioned in virtue of this act, or who may hereafter be appointed in virtue of this act, shall receive as a compensation for his services, as follows, viz. For the first district, at the rate of one thousand three hundred dollars per annum; for the second district, at the rate of one thousand three hundred dollars per annum; for the third district, at the rate of one thousand four hundred dollars per annum; for the fourth district, at the rate of one thousand three hundred dollars per annum; for the fifth district, at the rate of one thousand three hundred dollars per annum; and the treasurer of the western shore shall and he is hereby authorized and directed, to pay quarterly, out of any unappropriated money which may be in the treasury, to each of the said justices, or to his order, the sum which by this act he is entitled to receive.

And, as a fund towards payment of the above annual sum to the chief justices of the [illegible] courts,

Be it enacted, That the following [illegible] shall be paid on the following [illegible] and proceedings in the [illegible] courts of this state, to wit: On every writ of ejectment, attachment for contempt or debt, [illegible] ial; on every writ of replevin, [illegible] grand,

ST. DOMINGO.

Extract of a letter from a very reſpectable ſource, to a merchant in this city, received by the Severn, dated

NANTES, November 3, 1801.

"Letters from Breſt announce, that a courier has brought there an order to diſpatch, without delay, all the veſſels that may be in readineſs, to carry about 8000 troops, who are in that neighbourhood, to St. Domingo. Others from Paris ſtate, that the counſellor of ſtate, Beneſeth, is to proceed to the ſame iſland, as vice-conſul; general Le Clerc, a brother-in-law to Buonaparte, as captain-general; general Rochambeau, as commander of the land forces, having under his orders the generals Deſfourneaux and Boudet, with from 20 to 30,000 troops.

"Madame Buonaparte is authoriſed by her huſband to announce to all the coloniſts, that they may, with confidence, open their hearts to joy and comfort, as every thing will be ſoon reſtored to good order in that colony—and moſt probably the expedition to St. Domingo will ſucceed, without any effuſion of blood. WASHINGTON CITY.

SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Friday, January 8.

A meſſage was received from the preſident of the United States by Mr. Lewis, his ſecretary; which was not read, being apparently on executive buſineſs.

Mr. Brackenridge moved that the ſenate proceed to the conſideration of the preſident's meſſage, delivered at the commencement of the ſeſſion.

Agreed to.

Gen. Maſon called for the reading of the meſſage, which was in part read; when the further reading of the whole document was ſuſpended, and that part only read, which relates to the judiciary ſyſtem.

Upon which Mr. Brackenridge from Kentucky, roſe, and ſtated that two days ago he had given notice that on this day he would ſubmit to the conſideration of the ſenate two reſolutions reſpecting the judiciary eſtabliſhment of the United States. As, however, thoſe reſolutions were not neceſſarily connected, and as they might be diſtinctly diſcuſſed, he would at preſent confine himſelf to moving the firſt reſolution; without, however, foreclоſing to himſelf the right of ſubmitting the ſecond after the diſpoſition of the firſt. He therefore moved, that the act paſſed laſt ſeſſion reſpecting the judiciary eſtabliſhment of the United States, be repealed.

[This is the act which created 16 new circuit judges.]

The motion was ſeconded by general Maſon.

After the reſolution was read by the preſident,

Mr. Brackenridge ſaid, he did not deſire to precipitate a vote on the queſtion. But having given notice two days ſince of his intention to move this reſolution, he was himſelf prepared, if other gentlemen were prepared, to offer his ſentiments on the ſubject. But if this were not the caſe, if gentlemen were not prepared to enter into a diſcuſſion of a point of ſuch importance, he was not anxious for immediate conſideration.

Mr. Tracy obſerved that the ordinary mode of procedure in ſenate had been to refer in the firſt inſtance, each ſubſtantive member of the preſident's meſſage to a ſelect committee. But though this was the uſual courſe, yet he felt in no way hoſtile to any mode of doing buſineſs, which ſhould be moſt agreeable to the gentleman from Kentucky, or to the houſe. With an adherence to the ordinary courſe, he would have been better pleaſed, for the ſubſtantial reaſon, that by a reference of the ſubject to a ſelect committee, on receiving a report, the mind of the houſe would be drawn more preciſely to the points involved in it, than could be expected from a reſolution ſo looſe as the preſent, which could only give riſe to verbal diſcuſſions.

Another courſe of procedure had not been unuſual; that of obtaining leave to bring in a bill; in which event, the ſame reſult deſired by Mr. Tracy would be inſured, viz. the reference of the bill to a committee.

Mr. J. Maſon differed from the gentleman from Connecticut. He believed the mode, now purſued, was perfectly correct, and conformable to a principle, adopted this ſeſſion, that the ſenate was to be conſidered as in a committee of the whole on the preſident's meſſage, whenever taken up. Nor did he diſcern the neceſſity, in a body ſo ſelect as this, of refering each ſubject to a ſelect committee. But as the ſubject is extremely important, and ſome gentlemen ſeemed unprepared for the diſcuſſion, he moved its poſtponement till Friday.

Mr. Brackenridge ſaid, that though he had given notice, in his opinion ſufficient, of his purpoſe, yet, not wiſhing a precipitate diſcuſſion, he would agree to the deſired delay.

The conſideration of the reſolution was then deferred to Friday next.

BALTIMORE, January 5.

Another inſurrection at Guadaloupe.

Arrived yeſterday ſchooner Exchange, capt. Vibert, from Guadaloupe. Left it on the 11th, at which time Point-Petre, and the whole of the iſland, was in confuſion, another inſurrection having taken place there, which, had it not been fortunately diſcovered at the moment, would have involved the total deſtruction of every white and mulatto in the iſland.

The rebels in the preſent inſurrection were the country blacks againſt the whites and mulattoes. The former having lent a helping hand in the revolution which had juſt been effected, expected a total emancipation from their maſters; but not finding that event confirmed or even contemplated in the proclamation of the yellow general, Pelage, they had determined to atchieve their own liberty, through the blood of Pelage and his party. For this purpoſe 11,000 were to have been organized on the night ſucceeding that on which the plot was diſcovered—to have burnt the towns—and to have murdered every man, woman and child, of Pelage's party! At that very moment only when it could poſſibly have been defeated, was the plot diſcovered by a black woman, who was the kept miſs of a white man, when four of the ring-leaders were apprehended.

Notwithſtanding the bloody project had been diſcovered, and for the preſent warded off, yet every thing was apprehended from the vengeance and ferocity of the blacks, and all was in the utmoſt confuſion. In ſuch haſte was the iſland deſerted by thoſe who could get off, that the Exchange came away on the 11th with only two hands on board. An Engliſh and a French frigate were at that time off the iſland, cautioning veſſels not to go in. Accounts had alſo been received that general M'Donald, with 18,000 men, had ſailed for the windward, and general Rochambeau, with 40,000, for the leeward iſlands.

January 8.

We are informed, that a gentleman juſt arrived from the Weſt-Indies, brings intelligence of the arrival there of a French fleet, conſiſting of 45 ſail, with troops deſtined for Guadaloupe.
